

SPECIAL CALLED MEETING
COUNCIL PROCEEDINGS
APRIL 1, 2020

The LaFayette City Council met in a Special Called Session on Wednesday April 1, 2020 at 12:00 Noon with Mayor Barry D. Moody presiding. Councilmembers present: Toney B. Thomas, Michael C. Ellis, Tammie B. Williams (by phone); and Charlotte B. Blasingame.

Absent: Councilmember Neal McCurdy.

City Attorney Joseph M. Tucker was also present.

Mayor Moody stated that Governor Ivey made some adjustments on a temporary basis to the Opening Meetings Act, and that the Mayor and Council didn't want to only ask citizens to do something, but they also wanted to follow proper guidelines like social distancing and that's why you see everyone scattered out, and one councilmember participating by phone. Mayor Moody also stated that adjustments to the Open Meetings Act limits meetings to matters that are either necessary to respond to COVID-19 or necessary to perform functions that are deemed essential.

Resolution No. 2020-04-01-01 (Declaring A State Of Emergency)

A motion was made by Councilmember Thomas and seconded by Councilmember Ellis to adopt Resolution No. 2020-04-01-01 (Declaring A state of Emergency). Mayor Moody called for a vote: Ayes: Thomas, Ellis, Williams (via phone), Blasingame, and Mayor Moody. Nays: None. Motion carried.

Mayor Moody made a statement to the LaFayette Citizens and others from the surrounding area. Mayor Moody stated that during an interview a few weeks back with the LaFayette Sun, he stated that the threat of COVID-19 was real. Mayor Moody urged all citizens to take this threat seriously, and to follow the guidelines recommended by the President, the Governor, and others, which call for limiting travel, limiting gatherings to less than ten (10) people, and social distancing. Mayor Moody stated City of LaFayette Law Enforcement would be dispersing any gatherings that were ten (10) people or greater. Lastly, Mayor Moody again urged everyone to take it seriously and do everything to protect themselves and their family.

Adjourn

A motion was made by Councilmember Blasingame and seconded by Councilmember Ellis to adjourn at 12:19p.m. Mayor Moody called for a vote: All voted aye. Motion carried.

I, Barry D. Moody, Mayor of the City of LaFayette certify that the above minutes are true and correct and was taken at the April 1, 2020 Special Called Meeting.
